

THE BUSINESS ALBUM

A Baltimore Station supporter and Anthony Nicotra, right, a Baltimore Station board member from PNC Bank, were among those at the event.

Baltimore Station hosts Homerun for Recovery

PHOTOS PROVIDED BY THE BALTIMORE STATION

The Baltimore Station recently held its 23rd annual Homerun for Recovery.

With the help of many sponsors and attendees, the organization raised $108,297. All funds raised during the event directly support The Baltimore Station's mission of providing rehabilitation services in a therapeutic residential setting to homeless men, mostly veterans, who are battling addiction.

From left, Patrice Mezzanotte from PCA; Kendra Brown; Amy Wisewatti and Nancy Gray, from Tie it All Together, attended the recent fundraiser.

Sharon Gibala, left, from WJZ, and Paul Martin, from The Baltimore Station, attended the 23rd annual Homerun for Recovery.

Chris Holle, left, and Bill West were among those who attended the Homerun for Recovery.